

Age Related Milestones: History

Year 7 AO	Meeting (You can demonstrate these skills most of the time)	Exceeding (You can demonstrate these skills most of the time)
AO1 Knowledge and understanding of the key features and characteristics of the period studied.	Recall some facts. Describe and compare people, events and places in the past, showing a good understanding of chronological order.	Describe and compare people, events and places in the past, showing a good understanding of chronological order. Begin to make links between features of the past.
AO2 historical concepts: 1. Change and continuity/ Similarity and Difference	Describe the difference between people, events and periods.	Describe and make simple comparisons between different people, events and periods
AO2 2. Cause and consequence	List a few causes or consequences of an event	Describe the causes or consequences of an event
AO2 4. Significance	Understand what significance means in history. List reasons for the significance of an event, person or feature of the past	Describe some of the reasons for an event person or feature of the past being significant
AO3 Analyse, evaluate and use sources	Use source quotes or descriptions to describe what primary and secondary sources show	Use source quotes or descriptions to describe what primary and secondary sources suggest as well as show Compare sources by using quotations/detail
AO4 Analyse, evaluate and make substantiated judgements about interpretations	Describe different interpretations Understand that there can be different interpretations of the past.	compare different interpretations begin to suggest reasons why an interpretation is reliable/not