

QUEEN'S PARK HIGH SCHOOL

Home School Agreement

We believe that parents and carers are a child's first and enduring teachers who play a crucial role in helping their children to learn. Children achieve more when working together with parents, carers and teachers.
We believe that this relationship will be more effective if the roles of each partner are explained and understood.

Queen's Park High School - The school will to the best of its ability:

- Provide a safe and secure environment
- Provide a balanced curriculum and meet the individual needs of your child
- Provide opportunities for your child to develop the skills to be a successful citizen
- Monitor your child's progress to seek to ensure that he/she achieves his/her full potential in all aspects of school life
- Provide regular feedback on your child's progress with targets for improvement
- Promote high standards of work and behaviour, through the establishment of good relationships, the development of a sense of responsibility and belonging to a school community
- Be open and welcoming and offer opportunities for you to become involved in the life of the school

Parents/Carers: I/We shall

- See that my/our child attends school regularly, on time and properly equipped with correct uniform
- Contact the school on the first day of absence if my/our child is unwell and provide a note of explanation upon his/her return to school
- Inform the school of any concerns or problem that may affect my/our child's work or behaviour
- Support the school's policies and Code of Conduct
- Support my/our child in completing homework and other opportunities for learning outside school
- Regularly check my/our child's progress, attendance, behaviour and rewards using the school's online systems eg Synergy Parent Portal
- Attend Parents' Evenings and meetings about my/our child's progress

The Student – I will to the best of my ability
