

MEMBERS - PERSON SPECIFICATION

Essential

1. Commitment to securing the best possible progress and outcomes for all young people through the provision of inclusive education and a broad and balanced curriculum in schools of the highest quality.
2. Alignment with the Trust's Mission and Values.
3. Commitment and adherence to the Nolan Principles, the ethical principles expected of all public office holders: Selflessness, Integrity, Objectivity, Accountability, Openness, Honesty and Leadership.
4. Experience of holding a senior position in a public, private or voluntary sector organisation and/or a strong track-record of making a significant contribution to education or the local community.

Desirable

Experience of performance management, public/charitable sector governance, financial management or recruitment would be desirable but specific skills are less important than evidence of commitment.
