

QUEEN'S PARK HIGH SCHOOL

Queen's Park High School

Student Leadership Opportunities

Key Stage 3/4

Vice House Captains

What does a Vice House Captain do?

A Vice House Captain:

- Alongside House Captains, support with the development of the house identity within the whole student body
- Supports House Captains to plan and organise house events/competitions
- Supports with house charity events in liaison with charity prefects
- Act as student ambassadors and represent the student body.
- Inspire students to put forward ideas and improve the school.
- Represents year group on House Council

Who can be a Vice House Captain?

There are 2 Vice House Captains per year group from years 7-11. Students with the following qualities make ideal Vice House Captains:

- The ability to lead students and inspire via leadership
- An imaginative mind and the ability to come up with inventive ideas to improve the school
- Being easy to approach and have a friendly and positive attitude.
- The dedication to be reliable and trustworthy when set tasks

When can a student become a Vice House Captain?

The timescale for becoming a House Captain is as follows:

- In September, students can apply for the role of Vice House Captain and the posts last for 1 academic year
- Students apply for a role by sending in a short paragraph stating their personal experience and suitability for the role
- Senior Staff and House Captains will appoint the Vice House Captains

House Prefect

What does a House Prefect do?

A House Prefect:

- Works with Heads of House and Assistant Heads of House to act as mentors and buddies to other students in the house
- Supports new students joining QPHS
- Supports with organisation of house events
- Generate and collate feedback on PCEDs
- Supports with managing safety and positive attitudes around the school building
- Member of House Council
- Leading and participating in whole school events (when requested)

Who can become a House Prefect?

Students in years 7-11 with the following qualities make ideal candidates:

- a positive role model
- Willing to assist others to improve in sport
- Willing to help coordinate/run specific events linked to role
- Excellent communication skills
- Excellent organisational skills

When can students become House Prefects?

- Applications will begin in September